APPLYING FOR A CHINESE TOURIST VISA
PM GLOBE Seoul/Beijing 2012

Who needs to apply?
All non-Chinese citizens require a visa to enter China

Two options to obtain a visa:
Option 1-Apply for the visa directly with the Chinese consulate OR
Option 2-Submit required documents to the Office of Global Programs and Partnerships by Monday, January 23rd, 6:00 p.m.

Required documents
- Original passport (valid through mid-September 2012) with a blank visa page
  - Please make sure you have signed your passport
- One 2 x 2 passport size/type color photo (no photocopies)
- Completed visa application (see sample)
  - Travelers born in China, Japan or Taiwan must enter their original name in section 1.3 of the application form.
- If a non-US citizen, a copy of your U.S. residence card, advance parole or re-entry visa (H1B, L1, etc.)
- If a non-US citizen, a completed supplemental visa application (see sample)
- Application fee (see below)

Born in Mainland China? Submit one of the following:
- Original Chinese passport
- Or copy of expired Chinese visa in your current passport

Taiwanese citizens need to apply for a travel document and must complete a separate form (which is in Chinese). You cannot use your passport to travel to China. The travel document is not attached on the passport like a visa but looks like a passport book. See prices below.

Fees
For option 1: Obtain visa directly with Chinese consulate*
Cash and money order only, payable to “Chinese Consulate”
For US citizens-$140 for single, double, or multiple entry
For non-US citizens-$30 for single entry visa & $45 for double entry
For Taiwanese citizens-$45
For location and office hours http://losangeles.china-consulate.org/eng/aboutus/t27594.htm

For option 2: Drop off at Global Programs and Partnerships, BRI 310
Personal checks payable to “Crown International Travel” or credit card ($5 additional fee). NO CASH!
For US citizens-$140 for single, double, or multiple entry ($145 if paying by credit card)
For non-US citizens-$30 for single entry visa & $45 for double entry ($35 and $50 if paying by credit card)
For Taiwanese citizens-$45

Questions? Please call 213-740-1875 or globe@marshall.usc.edu.